NEWS RELEASE

PHILADELPHIA - John D. Kane, 40, of Berlin, NJ, was sentenced today to one year in prison for tax evasion and bank fraud, announced United States Attorney Zane David Memeger. Kane was charged February 17, 2010 and pleaded guilty on April 6, 2010. A superseding information, on May 19, 2010, charged Gregory M. Kane. He pleaded guilty and is awaiting sentencing. A second superseding indictment, on September 14, 2010, added David F. Kane, a former member of the Limerick Township Board of Supervisors, who was charged with conspiracy to commit tax evasion, tax evasion, making a false statement to obtain a loan, and bank fraud; Mark G. Marino, a member of the Skippack Township Board of Supervisors, who was charged with conspiracy to commit tax evasion, tax evasion, and five counts of filing false federal income tax returns; and Jamie E.E. Baugher, who was charged with conspiracy to commit tax evasion, tax evasion, and two counts of filing false federal income tax returns. Those three defendants are awaiting trial currently scheduled for February 22, 2011.

In addition to the prison term, U.S. District Court Judge Eduardo C. Robreno ordered Kane to pay restitution to the IRS in the amount of $94,821, and a fine in the amount of $10,000.

The case was investigated by the Internal Revenue Service Criminal Investigation Division and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorneys Richard J. Zack and Paul L. Gray.
